

OUR SAVIOR

The Jewish rulers scoffed at Jesus and the Roman soldiers mocked Him, saying that if He saved others He should save Himself. So why did He stay on the cross? Read Luke 23:35-38, and place the correct words in the story below. Then match the letters in the numbered squares to the grid at the bottom of the page. (Some numbers may be used more than once. Some letters have been filled in for you.)

an inscription over him, "This is the King of the Jews."

Understanding God's Plan

Jesus met two of His friends on the road to Emmaus and helped them to understand God's plan. Solve the maze, and collect the letters along the way. Place them in order in the grid to discover how you can learn God's plan for you.
