

MEMORY VERSE

By this point, the Memory Verse Trail Sign post should be started (see Lesson One), and the Memory Verse Trail Signs from the Visual Aid Packet should have been cut out. Have the Memory Verse Trail Sign for Lesson Five with you at this time. You will also want to print the Emu reproducible page, one for each student with their name written on their Emu. Gather the students at a table, and give them crayons or markers, so they can color their Emu as you talk.

Okay, bushwalkers. It's time for us to add the last Memory Verse Trail Sign to our post. Show the Memory Verse Trail Sign for Lesson Five. Our Bible verse can be found in Psalm 119:10 . It says, "With my whole heart I have sought You." Do you know what sought means? (Response) It means to look for something high and low. This writer has been looking for God with everything he has. He has been trying as hard as he can to follow Jesus all of the time, not just part of the time. That is called being obedient. When we do as God says, we can Turnabout from Rebellious to Resolute. Those are some big words. Rebellious means we want to do things our own way; we are turned about and going the wrong direction. Resolute means that we are firm as we follow Jesus, steady on the path that He puts before us. If we are going our own way, Jesus can help us so Turnabout that we can follow Him. (Attach the Memory Verse Trail Sign to the bulletin board.) Let's say our Bible verse together. Repeat after me...(Say the memory verse slowly, allowing students to repeat.) Good on ya! Everyone said the memory verse so that means everyone gets to place an Emu on the bulletin board. Help each child to attach their Emu near the Lesson Five Memory Verse Trail Sign.

Prepare the students for the Bible story. Okay, bushwalkers! Are you ready to hear our last story? It's about when Jesus met someone who needed His help to Turnabout. In this story, Jesus met a man named Saul as he was traveling on a road. Saul was going to a city to do things that Jesus did not want him to do. Jesus did something amazing to get Saul's attention. Let's find out what happened! Before we begin, let's sing our "Story Time Song."
